Morning, after breakfast, proceed to Munnar, known as nature lover's paradise. On arrival, check into your resort. Afternoon, go for a guided tea plantation walk. Overnight at the Resort.

Munnar ...breathtakingly beautiful - a haven of peace and tranquility - an idyllic tourist destination in God's own country with unending expanses of tea plantations... pristine valleys and mountains...exotic species of flora and fauna in its wild sanctuaries and forests...aroma of spice scented cool air. Munnar has all these and more.... It's the place you would love to visit... It's the place you would wish never to leave. Set at an altitude of 6000 ft in Idukki district, situated at the confluence of three mountain streams, Munnar was the favored summer resort of the erstwhile British rulers in the colonial days.

Sprawling tea plantations, picturesque towns, winding lanes, trekking and holiday facilities makes Munnar a holiday resort. Among the exotic flora found in the forests and grasslands here is the Neelakurinji a flower, which bathes the hills in blue once every twelve years. Munnar also has the highest peak in South India - Anamudi - which towers over 2695 M and is an ideal spot for campers who like trekking.
